2023 SCOUTS OF THE YEAR

Middle Tennessee Council Scouts are making our communities a better place for everyone. Scouting brings hope for a better future.

William Schroeder, Wolf, Pack 503

During a visit to his grandparents, William's grandfather had a massive heart attack. With his Scouting knowledge, William stayed calm and helped his grandmother with CPR and continued to do compressions for over four minutes until first responders arrived. William's actions were instrumental in saving his grandfather's life.

Liam Alexander, Eagle, Troop 407

A passion for service has led Liam to choose citizenship as his Eagle Scout project which included a blessing box for food items, a flag retirement box, a free library, inspirational notes, landscaping, lighting, a table, and a mural that reads, "Do a Good Turn Daily." Liam's service earned him the President's Service Award.

Kendall Beard, Life, Troop 621 and Sea Scout Ship 2910

Kendall has been an active member of the FFA Chapter at Stewart Creek High School and was elected Secretary for the region. Kendall was selected for TN Governor School for the Agricultural Sciences, and also spent part of the summer at UT Martin taking college courses. He supports his church's efforts providing food boxes and served in the Health Ministry in logistics/traffic support for their Health Fairs and periodic distribution of Flu and COVID shots. Kendall was also a summer camp lifeguard at Boxwell.

Kaitlyn Brown, Eagle, Troop 1581

Kaitlyn comes from a Scouting family. She is a founding member of Troop 1581, the first Eagle Scout in her troop and in the Elk River District. Kaitlyn is a leader in Order of the Arrow and is the Civil Air Patrol Squadron Cadet Commander and achieved the Earhart Award. She is a youth leader at church and sings in the choir. Kaitlyn volunteers her time with HorsePlay, Inc. and completed her Eagle Scout project establishing a Communications Board allowing verbal and nonverbal riders the ability to communicate how to handle the horse.

Ephraim Rodenbach, Eagle, Troop 367 and Venturing Crew 197

Ephraim currently serves as secretary of Wa-Hi-Nasa Lodge. He is President of Beta Club, Vice President of the Interact Club, former Class President, and a teaching assistant in broadcasting class at Smith County High School. He works for the local web-based news site, The Smith County Insider, producing articles and live streaming public community meetings. He was chosen as a broadcaster for the 80th Anniversary of D-Day and will memorialize his trip in a video blog for the members of the Smith County American Legion Post.

Samuel Rumbley, Eagle, Troop 1204 and Venturing Crew 1

Samuel has served in leadership positions within his Troop and Venture Crew and helped with service projects such as food collection, recycling, and volunteering with Cub Scouts. He has been on Boxwell summer camp staff and treks at Philmont and Sea Base. He has completed National Youth Leadership Training and National Advanced Youth Leadership Experience. He received the Founder's Award as Lodge Chief of the Order of the Arrow. Samuel participates in his church's service projects including helping to build a church in South America.
