MIDDLE TENNESSEE COUNCIL SCOUTS OF THE YEAR

Many of our Scouts are today leading the nation, voyaging in space or working on the next scientific breakthrough. Most importantly, they are adults who learned valuable skills as Scouts and today they are all individuals with high values and are good citizens. Each year, the Middle Tennessee Council selects local Scouts who have achieved something special or acted heroically. This year we are happy to announce the following four as our Scouts of the year.

Silas Miller, Arrow of Light, Pack 643

Silas refused to let the COVID pandemic or a devastating tornado prevent him from serving his community. He participated in cleanup efforts on Stones River and in the Lebanon community throughout the pandemic. He clocked over 16 service hours with tornado cleanup efforts alone. He has placed flags at the National Cemetery, collected items for the Scouting for Food drive, helped make way for a new ADA trail at Cedars of Lebanon, and supported his local animal shelter with a bake sale. Silas is a role model to other Scouts and he continues to show his great heart and hands of service.

Alec Jakalski, Life Scout, Troop 2015

During his time in Scouting, Alec has grown into a confident leader who takes action. When put in a challenging situation the day of the floods in Waverly, he did not hesitate to put a plan in place to rescue individuals from the rising waters. Alec is a Second-Class Petty Officer in JROTC at Wilson Central High School and will graduate this May. He plans to attend Cumberland University and will complete his associates degree in one year because of AP credits from high school. From there Alec plans to attend MTSU to study global communications.

Jacob Armistead, Eagle Scout, Troop 341

Jacob is known as the Scout that will always be prepared to lend a hand. He is an Eagle Scout and has been in Scouting for ten years. During the flood in Waverly, Jacob helped rescue stranded campers in Hickman County. He did not hesitate to use skills he learned in Scouting to remain calm and act quickly. Jacob is a senior at Wilson Central High School and is a Lieutenant in JROTC. Upon graduation in May, he plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to study nuclear science.

Hannah Bailey, Summit & Eagle Scout, Crew 357

Hannah is a two-time National Youth Leader Training (NYLT) and a four-time National Advanced Youth Leadership Experience (NAYLE) staffer. She has been the Southern Region Area 6 Venturing Officers' Association President and led programs such as SOAR for Venturing. Hannah received her Eagle Scout rank in the inaugural female class and earned the 2021 Glenn A. and Melinda W. Adams Service Project of the Year for the Southern Region. Her project focused on preventing river disasters. Hannah is a junior at Tennessee Tech University and studies Nutrition.

THE MISSION OF THE MIDDLE TENNESSEE COUNCIL, BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA IS TO PREPARE YOUNG PEOPLE TO MAKE ETHICAL AND MORAL CHOICES OVER THEIR LIFETIMES BY INSTILLING IN THEM THE VALUES OF THE SCOUT OATH AND LAW.
